Good Evening Irma,

I have just received a call from Gregory at Epiq Systems (who as you will know are managing Lehman's claims), and he has shed some light on why our acceptance of your transfers that we submitted some considerable time ago have not gone through. It relates to missing tax forms, which it transpires my colleague Sandra Lawrence has since submitted.

The plot thickens however, in that the transfer of claim forms you have completed are in the name of Cenkos Channel Islands Limited (or in the case of the attached Ravenscroft Limited), however all client assets are held in the name of our nominee company, Huntress (CI) Nominees Limited. My apologies if I have not made this clear previously

What I suggest we do, is that you resubmit your transfer of claim forms to transfer to "Huntress (CI) Nominees Limited, Designation KGCLT", and send us over a copy as you did for the attached. We will then complete the relevant Form 210A to correspond with your submission. Gregory (CC'd) is going to hold on to our tax forms in the name of our nominee company for the time being, so hopefully upon receipt of both our forms he will be able to complete the transfer.

Gregory, I know the last time I was dealing with these transfers of claim much of New York was under water, am I correct in saying that all documentation should be submitted to the below address still?
